Home-Raised Colt

Still the wonder grows that a greater number of farmers do not raise more horses and mules. Several days ago Mr. W. E. Winn sold a home-raised colt to his brother, Mr. J. E. Winn, for $200. Those who saw the fine young mare say she was a great bargain at that price. The Winn brothers can afford to keep brood mares, because they always grow an abundance of corn at home to supply the farm.
